SEVEN CASH PRIZE PROVERB CONTEST TO-DAY.

Find the 18 Capital Letters and Work Out the Proverb.

The proverb published in last Sunday Times want proverb contest was "Better late than never." The names of the winners and others sending the correct answers will be found in another column.

The proverb in to-day's contest is compared of the but the way and the services of the services and the services are services as the services are services and the services are services and the services are services and the services are services as the services are services are services as the services are services are services as posed of twenty-two capital letters,

The provero in to-day's contest is composed of twenty-two capital letters, and will be found in the middle of words scattered through the want columns of both pages. These capital letters haven any value whatever to the words—as, for instance—the letter "A" in the word "bargains," vix: "barAgains."

All answers should be addressed to the "Proverb Contest," Times office, and should reach this office not later than Friday at noon, when they will be placed (unopened) face downwards and thoroughly mixed. The first seven correct answers drawn will be awarded the seven cash prizes in the order drawn, viz: First, $2; second, $1; third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh, fifty cents each. Write name and address carefully. What is the proverb? is the proverb?
